Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On December 22, 2014, one of Newtek Business Services Corp.'s (the "Company") wholly-owned portfolio companies, Small Business Lending, Inc. ("SBL"), entered into a new contract (the "New Agreement") with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"), pursuant to which SBL will continue to provide the same or similar loan servicing and consulting services to the FDIC for United States Small Business Administration, United States Department of Agriculture and other loans acquired by the FDIC from failed banks, as it did under its previous contract with the FDIC (the "Original Agreement"). Based on the mutually beneficial relationship experienced by both parties over the last five (5) years under the Original Agreement, each of SBL and the FDIC decided to extend the relationship under the New Agreement. SBL will continue as the contractor assisting the FDIC in the orderly take over, management, servicing and liquidation of these loans acquired by it as receiver or conservator for failed financial institutions. The New Agreement has an initial term of three (3) years, with an option in favor of the FDIC for two (2) additional three (3) year terms and one (1) additional one year term, for a total period of performance of up to ten (10) years.
